10 Ways to Use the Phonics Cards

The following list is just a few ideas to get you started…the uses of these cards are limitless!

1. Classroom display/decoration.
2. Word Work in Guided Reading and Small Groups.
    - Make word lists with same initial letters
    - Make lists of rhyming words
    - Make lists of synonyms.
    - Make list of places you've seen or heard the word before.
3. Hole-punched set on a ring.
4. Memory Game.
5. Introduce new vocabulary to ELL students.
6. Individual word lists in each students' notebook.
7. A 'go fish' phonics game.
8. Making a sound wall.
9. Making phonics pattern book and coloring in the letters with the black and white versions.
10. Send home student pages and ask students to make a list of words from around their house that follow the same vowel and letter pattern. Then write a short story using as many of those words as possible.
