Hello There!

I am so excited to be bringing you these figurative language posters!

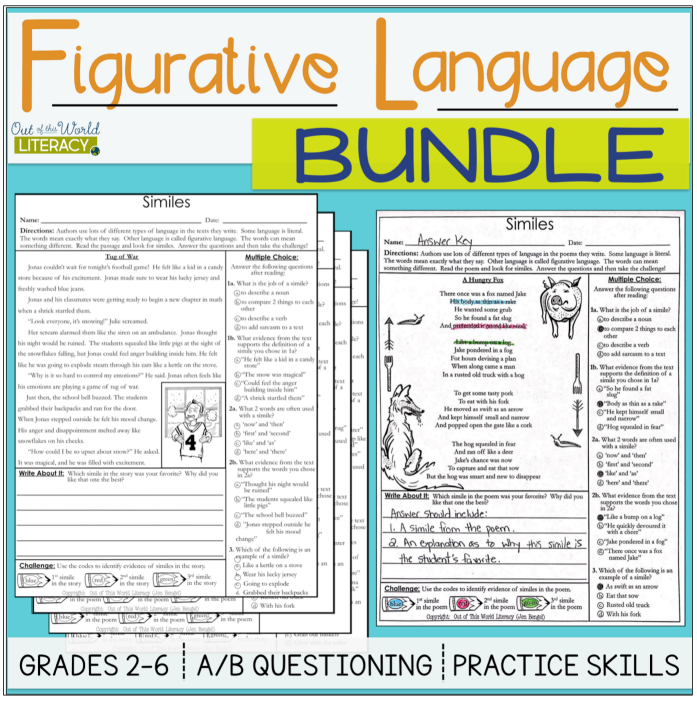

What Is Included:

1. Figurative language cards to practice 11 skills (think the game Memory).
2. Custom clip art versions.
3. No clip art versions.
4. Cards include: name of skill, definition, examples in text.

Ideas to Use the Game Cards:

1. As a guide in a small group.
2. In a small group for review fun.
3. In a literacy center...put them on rings or play memory.
4. As a whole group memory game.
5. With partners to review skills.
6. Sent home as a homework review.

CLICK THE IMAGE to see figurative language passages!

Thank you so much to these amazing artists, whose work is found in this resource!

ALL Fonts Lifetime License
Malaya Bengel Art
PB FONTS PERFECT BLEND FONTS

The 11 Skills Covered:

1. Alliteration
2. Allusion
3. Hyperboles
4. Idioms
5. Irony
6. Metaphors
7. Onomatopoeia
8. Oxymoron
9. Personification
10. Sarcasm
11. Similes

Alliteration

A type of figurative language that occurs when wor that start with th me ou ds f ow ach h in ase.

Allusion

A figure of speech including short phrases that tell the readers something about the text without saying it in a literal, direct ay

Hyperboles

A gure of speech that contains an exaggeration. The phrase is not meant to be taken literally by the reader. It is often considered dramatic.

Sample
Sample

Alliteration

A type of figurative language that occurs when wor s that start with th me ou ds t low ach o he in a ph ase.

Alliteration

Allusion

A figure of speech including short phrases that tell the readers something about the text without saying it in a literal, direct ay.

Allusion

Hyperbole

A gure of speech that contains an exaggeration. The hyperbole is not meant to be taken literally by the reader. It is often considered dramatic.

Hyperbole

Sample
Sample

After 5 minutes of chewing the gooey, gloppy gum got stuck to the top of my mouth.

Stop acting like a diva and get your work done without complaining.

I am so hungry I could eat a horse.

It has been raining cats and dogs outside all day long.

"What nice weather we're having," Mack said as the storm flashed lightening in the sky.

Ian is an angry bear when he is hungry and doesn't have food to eat.

sample
sample